

Please join Custom Storage and IBM on Tuesday, May 25th from 11:30-1:30pm for our Steak and Storage event.

Come have a great lunch on us at Smith & Wollensky's Steakhouse while you learn about IBM's exciting new storage product, XiV.

STEAK AND STORAGE

With Custom Storage & IBM

Learn how XiV enables:

- High performance with full exploitation of system resources
- High reliability with system components protected in an N+1 active-active design.
- Reduced risk of impact from disk failure
- Lower storage costs through simplified provisioning and space reclamation

Venue:

Smith & Wollensky's Steakhouse

3767 South Las Vegas Blvd.
Las Vegas, NV 89109
(On the Strip, Opposite the Monte Carlo)

Date & Time:

Tuesday, May 25, 2010
11:30am-1:30pm

XiV is changing the way customers think about storing data. XiV has been developed by using grid architecture and is the first real change in how you store and manage your data in years! It is easier to manage than any other storage and much more cost effective.
